ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

1881 -

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, begun in 17:9, is the oldest newspaper in the State, and the only daily published in Northern Virginia It has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the lawn of the nigeteenth century. It lives, too, not in decay, but full of life and vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without iest, favor or affection, treaching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest infigments of public men and public measures.

it faraishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but three exceptions, the only paper between Bultimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great founture of the world's naws.

With the coming year all the long tried and theorets a short of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprietor in balleving will add to the expants of the Gissatte to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a cindid criticism of men and events to the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

To med all the demands upon it, the Goz die will be main a WASHINGTON and RICH. SELA CA ES llew es RETAPENAR CODE ANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of past years has loft little to Improve, but yet greater effort will be made to issure absolute perfection in these departments,

The city of Alexandria will and as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the estructure of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazotto will be filled with the earliest and most erset commercial news, edited with such painttaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Product movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandria and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or sleek markets of the country epito. mized for its columns, full details being given to all etco's, &c., which flad investors in this section of the country.

The aivertising columns of the Gazette offer taduesments which experience has shown to sfford greater returns for a small investment than say other which can be made.

HOLIDAY GOODS. CHRISTMAS BALLAD AT BRENGLE'S No. 129 King st.

Mary had a little cake. Ita ice was white as snow : Twas fair to see and sweet to taste. For Brengle makes them so.

She took the cake to school one day : It was against the rule; For children all love Brengle's cakes And take a bite in school.

And so the teacher took the cake And eat it on the sty; And after school, with solemn face, She told the carld a lie.

Sha said the mice had eat the cake And thought it very nice; That all of them that tasted it

Had turned to candy mico. The candy mice the windows show And tempt the boys to break, Were just the very little mice That nabbled Mary's cake.

But Mary was not fooled at all. "Too thin," was all she spake, The teacher quick to Brengte's skipped And bought another cake,

And Brengle has lots of such Cakes on hand for Christmas. Lost Baggage.

Daws in the Usion Depot, there are a thous and carpetbage, satobels, grab bage and parcels piled up on shelves to await owners. The coljee ion is known as stray baggage, and it is added to or taken from almost daily. The man who has charge of it knows pretty well the contents of each, and what he doesn't know he can guessat. Yesterday, whon a woman entered his domain and said she was looking for a lost saichel, he promptly replied :

"Very well, madam. We will begin our search in division 'A.' Were both handles off your earchel, the bottom parely ripped off and a red woolen rag sticking out of the side?"

"No, sir." "Ah! then I missed it. Lat's see: Here's a satonel which has been here about four woeks. The first thiog on top is a red wig and a pair of blue stockings."

'That isn't mine, sir."

"Just so. Belongs to some poor soul who can'e be happy without it, Here's a satchel which bears your discription, but it can't be yours. The principal contents are a bottle of poor whiskey, an old hat and a dime novel. Can't belong to you nohow?"

"No, sir."
"Well, here's another bundle. I should say by the feel that it contained two night caps, volume of poetry and a set of false frizzes. Do you identify it?"
"No, sir, I don't."

"Dies this satchel resemble yours?" "Yes, sir."

"Any familiar marks about it?"
"Y.s, coveral." "Did your satchel contain a package of sixteen love letters, each one leading off with: 'Dear Ben,' and closing with 'your own dar-
